Unscrewed Theater Youth Program Attendance & Dress Code Policy

Improv is a collaborative art. Attendance and participation affects not only your student's success but the success of the program as a whole. However, we do understand that absences may be unavoidable. We are unable to provide refunds or discounts for absences from Youth Program classes.

TeenBlox Absences

The TeenBlox courses conclude with a public Student Showcase. Participation in the Student Showcase is optional. However, in order to ensure that all students are sufficiently prepared for a public performance, the following absence requirements are necessary:

1. Students who miss two or more classes will not be eligible to perform in the Student Showcase.
2. Students who miss the final class or the showcase preparation rehearsal, to be scheduled at a time convenient to all participating students, will not be eligible to perform in the Student Showcase.

KidBlox Absences

The KidBlox course concludes with a private Student Showcase for parents/guardians and any friends and family they choose to invite to the final class of each session. Participation in the Student Showcase is optional.

Dress Code

Clothing should be comfortable and allow for freedom of movement. Strappy or low-cut tank tops, visible bras, hats/caps, and revealing shorts or skirts are not allowed. We want students to be comfortable and focused, not distracted by their or others' clothing.

Footwear should also be appropriate for moderate physical activity. Flip-flops or sandals that easily slip off are not permitted. Closed-toe shoes are highly recommended.

I have read and agree to the Absence and Dress Code Policy.
